BIO

simmons is a charlotte-based dj bringing high-energy tech house, bass house, bass/dubstep and big room sounds to every stage he touches. raised in baltimore and sharpened in charlotte's club scene, he's built his name through local residencies and direct support slots for artists like krewella, nic vans, kyle cooke, and koastle — performing at venues across the carolinas and new york city. two years into his professional run, simmons is just getting started.
